

Introduction

The Western Sydney Academy of Sport implements high performance programs for western Sydney's talented young athletes across a number of sports.

The Academy is now accepting applications from athletes interested in a scholarship position within the 2015/16 Golf Development Program.

Program at a glance

- Male and female athletes between the ages of 13 and 18 years will be selected.
- Program will run from October to April, comprising technical development opportunities, athlete education, sport science and fitness elements for Academy scholarship holders.
- The program will aim to prepare talented young athletes for progression to higher levels of individual performance and achievement, specifically selection into the JNJG State Junior Talent Development Program.
- Athletes will have the opportunity to represent the Academy at the 2016 Academy Games being held in the Central Coast Region.

Cost

A levy of $380 will be applicable to successful athletes which will assist in meeting costs of the program.

Eligibility

To be eligible to apply for the Golf Program athletes must be:

- Aged 13-18 for the majority of the Program.
- Committed to progressing to higher representation within the sport of Golf.
- A financial member of a local Golf Club.
- Currently residing within one of the Local Government Areas of Auburn, Bankstown, Blacktown, Blue Mountains, Fairfield, Hawkesbury, Holroyd, Parramatta, Penrith or The Hills.

How to apply

Nomination forms and selection criteria are available on our website: www.wsas.com.au or by contacting the Academy's office during business hours on 4725 6466 or steve@wsas.com.au

If you wish to eligible for selection you must submit the nomination form to the Academy office no later than Friday 4 September 2015.

Endorsed by...

Supported by...

